THE BIDEN CRIME FAMILY

We could post an hour of videos showing Joe "Big Guy" Biden stating he would NOT pardon his son Hunter because "no one is above the law." Then we could share hours of leftists (Democrats, social media influencers, TV hosts, entertainers, etc.) insisting that Biden would never pardon Hunter because "no one is above the law."

Really … did anyone believe the Big Guy would NOT pardon Hunter? Kurt Ehrenberg, a former top Bernie Sanders adviser in New Hampshire said the obvious about the Hunter pardon:

> It was a "big F-you to the Democratic Party that ousted him. He's got nothing to lose. His friends threw him over the side. He did what was best for him, which is always what Joe Biden does."

Now there is a lot of chatter of all the other law-breakers that Joe Biden will pardon. Will Joey pardon the entire Biden Crime Family? For instance:

- James Biden—Is said to have tried selling access to Joe to foreign oligarchs.
- Frank Biden—Is reported that the real estate developer frequently used his last name in business situations.
- Sara Biden—Wife of James with questionable connections to China via Chinese firm CEFC.
- Other Biden Family—In "After Hunter's Pardon, It's Time to Prosecute the Rest of the Biden Crime Family," Elle Purnell writes at The Federalist:

> Hunter, Joe, and James weren't the only Biden family members profiting from the scheme. In May 2023, House investigators reported that the Bidens received a total of $10 million — later revealed to be at least $20 million — in a series of payments that originated with foreign benefactors and trickled down as far as the Biden grandchildren.
> These payments reached "at least nine Biden family members including the president's son Hunter Biden, his brother James Biden, James's wife, Hunter's ex-girlfriend who is also his brother Beau Biden's widow, Hunter's ex-wife, Hunter's current wife, and at least one grandchild and a couple of nieces and/or nephews," as The Federalist's Jordan Boyd reported at the time.

On April 19, 2018, then California Representative and now senator-elect and Serial Liar Adam Schiff said about pardons in a CNN interview with Don Lemon:

> "If the President issues a pardon in a case in which he or his family are implicated, the American people need to know whether it is part of an attempt to obstruct justice. This bill would make that possible and serve as a powerful deterrent."

RESISTANCE TO THE RESISTANCE

Many people thought there would be protests following Donald Trump's landslide Election Day victory. Never happened. Now so-called resistance leaders are concerned they won't get the masses to protest in D.C. on January 18, two days before the second inauguration.

Some reasons there's resistance to the resistance:

- On November 15, Michael Schaffer at left-leaning Politico wrote an article "The Resistance is Not Coming to Save You. It's Tuning Out." The subheading was: "The first Trump administration sparked waves of public activism and aggressive media coverage. This time, not so much."
- Last week, Vermont Independent/Socialist Bernie Sanders posted a favorable X comment regarding DOGE (Department of Government Efficiency):
  "Elon Musk is right. The Pentagon, with a budget of $886 billion, just failed its 7th audit in a row. It's lost track of billions. Last year, only 13 senators voted against the Military Industrial Complex and a defense budget full of waste and fraud. That must change."
- Also that week, California Democrat Representative Ro Khanna tweeted:
  "When it comes to cutting waste, fraud, and abuse and opening the 5 primes to more competition, there are Democrats on HASC [the House Armed Services Committee] who will work with @elonmusk and @DOGE."
- Republican Representatives Pete Sessions (Texas) and Aaron Bean (Florida) launched the Congressional DOGE Caucus, which is open to all members. Florida Representative Jared Moskowitz became the first Democrat to join. His statement included:
  "Today, I will join the Congressional DOGE Caucus, because I believe that streamlining government processes and reducing ineffective government spending should not be a partisan issue."
- MSNBC anti-Trump Morning Joe hosts Mika Brezinski and husband Joe Scarborough sought and had a Mar-a-Lago meeting with Trump.
- Leftist Facebook founder Mark Zuckerberg, whose META company adheres to censorship, had dinner with President Trump at Mar-a-Lago. (Yes, Zuckerberg sees which way the wind blows, but he was kissing Trump's ring all the same.)
- The liars on The View are now regularly corrected with legal notes. (And don't they look so happy reading them?)
- Left-leaning newspapers want more conservative voices on their opinion page. The Los Angeles Times just added CNN's lone conservative voice Scott Jennings. (Jennings is the only reason to watch CNN. He does a masterful job challenging liberal insanity.)
- New York Representative (and socialist) Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (aka AOC) dropped her social media pronouns following the election. AOC claims her pronouns were dropped for space reasons. We are sure she could have found room for them. AOC's new pronouns are: We/Lost.

DEMOCRATS: Finger pointing continues

First, a correction. For weeks we've shared that the Harris campaign spent $1.2 BILLION over 107 days on their losing campaign. It's now reported that the figure is an astonishing $1.5 BILLION. Harris's campaign is still sending out emails begging for money since they finished $20 MILLION in debt. Here are some post-election comments nearly one month after her big loss:

Connecticut Democrat Senator Chris Murphy on Meet the Press
"Well…in hindsight, knowing that he ultimately made the decision to stand down, yes, of course, it would have been better for President Biden to have made that decision earlier. I think there's no question about it."

Democrat strategist Jon Reinish in New York Post
"Getting fundraising requests after any candidate has lost, when they admit that they are still millions of dollars in debt, having blown through over a billion dollars … is especially galling. When I got yet another request from the Harris campaign for me to pony up. Quite frankly, I thought it was insulting."

Former Biden White House aide Meghan Hays in an interview
"She did not do an interview for the first 30-some days. I think that the media latched on to that, and then when they did ask her questions, it was more about why she wasn't doing the interviews."

Pollster Nate Silver in an interview (as Harris's team says her loss was a conspiracy)
"Harris didn't do a solo network interview until late September. Which who cares, fine, the networks don't matter so much. Then she did a bunch toward the end of the race. But she was legit not doing a lot of traditional media. That was the campaign's choice, not some conspiracy."

COMMUNIST CALIFORNIA: Statistics prove it

Anyone who emails Robin Itzler, often receives a response signed: Robin in Communist California. It's not hyperbole, but reality. The Hoover Institution reported that 96.5 percent of new jobs in the once Golden State were GOVERNMENT jobs.

"It is well known that California has been among the worst-performing states in the country in terms of job > growth. But the latest statistics show that nearly all jobs that are being created in California are government jobs. Between January 2022 and June 2024, total California jobs grew by about 156,000, with government jobs accounting for 96.5 percent of that growth."

The important thing to remember is that Governor Gavin "Hair Gel" Newsom just purchased a $9+ MILLION mansion. According to the listing (and use this as reference to compare to your own home):

> "...the 5,609 square-foot home's "extraordinary luxury" includes floor-to-ceiling windows, LaCantina folding glass doors and a chef's kitchen. The property's "resort-like" exterior features a swimming pool and spa and "inspiring" views of Mount Tamalpais."

Newsom has NOT released his tax returns since starting his second term. His income as governor is $234,101 and he also has earnings from wine and entertainment businesses that are in a blind trust. In all fairness, four years of Joe Biden and Kamala Harris has driven many people to drink, which could be why Newsom's wine business might be doing very well.

And how do you like all those races where REPUBLICANS were ahead until they counted votes through December 3? Suddenly, the Democrat wins the race! You cannot say "election integrity" and "California" in the same sentence.

GUESS—FBI Hoover's funeral

J. Edgar Hoover, the first and longest FBI Director, died in New York City on October 20, 1964, at age 90. At the time of his death, Hoover was still Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Funeral services were held in both New York and Washington D.C. Following the second service, a C-30 Hercules aircraft brought Hoover's body to his hometown of West Branch, Iowa, for burial.

Anyone in politics attended the Hoover D.C. funeral. The seating was very detailed. Members of the current administration sat together, prior members sat together, family members sat together, Congressional members sat together, FBI leadership and agents sat together, etc. Yet. there was ONE key exception. Who was it?

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Some events from around the nation:

• GOD BLESS AMERICA—Marxists Barack Obama and his pal Joe Biden are the only presidents who have omitted GOD from their Thanksgiving proclamations.

• WHILE HURRICANE VICTIMS SUFFER—On December 3, outgoing pResident Joe "Big Guy" Biden spoke at the National Museum of Slavery in Angola. He promised $1 BILLION to help African nations rebuild due to natural disasters. We should remind Joey that the United States recently had its own natural disasters and Americans are still very much in need. (January 20th can't come fast enough). To share your thoughts with the hapless Biden:

• NEW YORK CITY—The Roosevelt Hotel, named after President Theodore Roosevelt, was once a New York landmark. Since the Biden-Harris administration has allowed millions of ILLEGAL ALIENS to waltz into the United States, the hotel has become a cesspool. But the Pakistani government is very happy.

For several decades, the Roosevelt Hotel has been owned by the state-run Pakistan International Airlines. It closed in 2020 due to New York City's draconian COVID-19 "scamdemic" measures. But for the last few years, the hotel has had full occupancy—all 1,250 rooms have been occupied! The Big Apple is leasing the hotel from Pakistan to house ILLEGAL ALIENS. Not to house homeless veterans, but to house illegal aliens!

The Pakistani government is thrilled receiving $220 million in annual rental income from New York City.

• ALASKA, ARIZONA, CALIFORNIA, HAWAII, IDAHO, MONTANA, NEVADA, OREGON and WASHINGTON—The Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals unanimously ruled that the federal government controls deporting illegal aliens. The 29-page ruling stated:

> "The federal government has the authority to deport foreign nationals in the U.S. illegally over the objection of local authorities."

THE WORLD: Events from around the globe

• GERMANY—In May, political activist Michael Stürzenberger and several others were viciously attacked (as seen on a live stream video) at a Mannheim rally by Afghanistan refugee Sulaiman Ataee. Among those attacked was a police office who later died of wounds to his neck. A German court recently found Stürzenberger guilty of incitement for hatred against Muslims and refugees. Stürzenberger is known for campaigning against radical Islam invading and destroying Germany. At first, he was going to be sentenced to prison, but it was downgraded to a fine.

• GREAT BRITAIN—Have you ever said to someone who has an accent, "Sorry, I can't understand you with your accent?" If yes, you might have been charged with racial discrimination if this occurred in Great Britain. Marketing Manager Elaine Carozzi took the University of Hertfordshire to an employment tribunal because she was tired of people saying they had difficulty understanding her "strong" Brazilian accent.

At first, her claims were dismissed by the tribunal in 2021. But now Carozzi won a legal battle to have part of her case reheard by an appeal tribunal because there supposedly were mistakes in the in tribunal's decision. For instance, the appeal tribunal says that complaining about someone's very thick accent could violate dignity and be a form of harassment.

A Letter from a J6 Prisoner

★ by KGxCAJ6er ★

- Final Part -

This spiritual battle continues to rage in the heavenly places, and we Americans and Patriot Neighbors readers, must continue to pray for our newly elected leaders and administration. First and foremost, we must continue to pray for President-Elect Donald Trump as the left, who's spent 50 years and trillions of dollars on destroying this Nation, will not give up their ambitions easily.

There will be more attempts to delegitimize and thwart all efforts to inaugurate President Trump into office in the coming days. I pray that God provides a hedge of protection over him, his family, and his administration during this transition into office. I also pray that the elected officials never forget that their paths, and the fate of this Nation, are guided by God Almighty Himself. I pray that each day a national Chaplin, like Peter Marshall, leads daily prayers in our Nation's Capital at the beginning of each session of Congress and Senate assembly to assure that this country seeks His will first, so He can direct our paths that lead this great Nation to His assured righteousness.

We are on the precipice of the most exciting and historic time in history! Our future is brighter than it's been since our Founding Fathers penned the guiding documents which birthed this union into existence. We all have an opportunity to set a course of prosperity and an unimaginable future for generations to come. This group of deliverers has an opportunity to forge a moral society that is recommitted to biblical principles that will be the envy of the world. It will be a Republic like no other in history; a guiding light for freedom, liberty, and prosperity, if "We Can Keep It!" Lest we never forget this moment in time where God rescued us because we turned to Him and turned away from evil. Let us teach each generation henceforth about the faithful promises of our creator and His son's sacrifice on that cross that saved us from ourselves.

Please remember these fallen Patriots:

Ashli Babbitt: Airforce veteran who was executed by Capital police officer Michael Byrd, who was promoted by this administration and continues to be free.

Roseanne Boyland: Beaten to death by Capitol Police and died on the steps of the Capitol near the west tunnel.

Kevin Greeson and Benjamin Phillips: Mysteriously died of heart attacks.

Unidentified Person: Pushed off the wall of the Capitol by a Capitol police officer. The victim landed on his head and broke his neck, dying instantly. Video evidence of this exists.

I want to thank all of you for your support and prayers over this last 4 years for all the J6ers. (Even if you don't know me, you've been praying for all the J6ers.) Although some of you don't believe that President Trump should pardon all J6ers, remember the cause of this demonstration was a stolen election, our most treasured right of this Republic. We were there to defend our Constitutional Rights to uphold the People's government.

Additionally, this fight would never have happened if the existing regime, the Capitol Police, and the three letter government entities hadn't instigated and coerced the crowd into violence. This was entrapment and a well-orchestrated effort to quell any and all efforts to suppress the will of "We The People." As evidence is released in the coming months, and possibly years, this event in our Nation's history will be revered as a turning point that brought public awareness of the injustice, persecution, and tyranny that government rulers are capable of doing to accomplish their greedy global agendas when God is removed from our society and replaced with evil.

May God bless you and your families with His amazing grace. Remember to always Love thy neighbor and give your hearts and minds to Jesus Christ. From my cell to your home, Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

GUESS ANSWER: Efrem Zimbalist, Jr.

Efrem Zimbalist, Jr.'s portrayal of Lewis Erskine on the popular television program "The F.B.I." was why there was a surge of applicants to join the department. Hoover appreciated Zimbalist's appearance outside of his TV role, believing that many Americans identified the actor as an FBI agent although he only played one on television. That connection helped frame the FBI's reputation in the minds of most Americans as a government agency dedicated to protecting American citizens and adhering to the Constitution.

The ABC series ran from 1965 to 1974. Over nine seasons, there were 241 episodes, taken from actual FBI files. (Pictured: J. Edgar Hoover at his desk and Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. on the "The FBI" soundstage.)

From "J. Edgar Hoover: The Man and His Secrets" by Curt Gentry:

> One person in the Bureau pews was not a current or former agent, although perhaps millions of people thought of him as such. He was Efrem Zimbalist, Jr., star of the television series "The FBI," whose image had so impressed the late director that he had instructed his agents to emulate the actor.

Trump was going to pardon Hunter. The question now remains: Will Biden pardon his trumped up charges on Trump and pardon Trump??? Or did the Dems cancel the charges on Trump first? Hunter's charges are real, but the lawsuits against Trump were all politically motivated. Nothing else.

Gail, this pardon proves Joe Biden is a LIAR!
So, what else is new?

Sarah Nagle—Marin County GOP—California

Following a November 25 email Robin received from the Marin County GOP about California still counting votes, Robin wrote back: "Where is the CAGOP? Where is the RNC?" Outgoing Marin County GOP Secretary Sarah Nagle responded with the following that is reprinted with permission:

> Well, if you watch FOX news Jessica Patterson, the CAGOP chairwoman was on television this morning talking about ongoing issues in California. Personally, I was invited as the most junior person at the table to a round table with Ms. Patterson back in early October. A month before the election the CAGOP had the Steel race on one of their lists.
> What a lot of people don't realize is that Congressional races require what is known as "hard dollars." The money is harder to raise at a Congressional level because, while PACs can give (or raise) virtually unlimited money. We're limited as to how much we can directly GIVE to a Congressional candidate. (Or presidential candidate.) Meanwhile, we could give ulimited money in schoolboard races.
> If you decide to run for a local schoolboard race in most of California you can have all of your friends cut you checks for ten thousand dollars a piece. Meanwhile, if you opt to run for Congress, the Party is limited in how much money we can give, and individuals are limited. So, we look for more smaller donors at a Federal race level.

Thank you, Sarah, for sharing this information.
We need MIKE MORRELL as the next CAGOP Chairman!

Here's a thought for all Patriot Neighbors readers. I just put this on the outside marque at our church:

"Feel the Christmas Spirit All Year Long, Become a Christian."

Linda, thank you.

This year, we celebrate Jesus's birthday on December 25. Hanukkah for Jews starts on December 25. The last time this happened was in 2016 when Trump was elected to his first term. Now as Trump is elected to his second term, it happens again. God is with America First Patriots!

  I assured her that I was a good Christian who knew my Bible, but simply couldn't recall anything about firemen in the Holy Book.
  "Well, they're wearing firemen helmets because the Bible says that 'the three wise men came from afar.'"
